Dear Alan,

First of all, I would like to send my congratulations for a wonderfully passionate and virtuosic concert! My friends from school who came along and do not for everything you've done.

listen to classical music were also thoroughly engaged throughout the concert.

I honestly do not know how to express my thank you's to you, but I assure you that you had given me the most wonderful opportunity that any aspiring musician could wish for and I would like to say many 'thank you's' for this.

I have learnt so much along the way, both musically and about my abilities all of which I am sure are going to be useful as I mature.

Thank you again,
Warmest Regards,
Yuhui Guo

P.S. My parents send their best regards
